Fr. George Report:

1. After Labor Day, CCD Classes were formally commenced on 09-03.2017. On the First Sunday itself nearly 75 students were enrolled. And in Confirmation Class including a big batch of 13 students to be confirmed this year total number will be nearly 30. This is a happy news for our growing Church. I wish all of them for their best training and formation.
2. Including the DRE, three teachers representing our Church attended the Catechetical Training Program conducted at the Catholic Center, Nashville on 09-16-2017. Congratulations to the participants. I hope that their training will be highly enriching and supportive to our students.
3. It is also encouraging to note that once in a while we get new families and members to join the parish. "The Teacher-Training program" for the CCD Teachers in our Church, will be conducted on Sunday, 10-22-2017, after the CCD Classes. All teachers are requested to attend the program.
4. The much awaited "Parish Picnic" was conducted on Sunday, 09-17-2017 in the evening from 5.0o P.M onwards. Including the new families joined the Church, there was a very good representation from many families and their friends for the Picnic. All enjoyed the dinner with family spirit and fellowship. It was followed by the children's games and a lot a fun as well.

Finance Board Report: Bruce Balsama

Capital Campaign Committee Report: Richard Paladino

The Diocesan legal team officially filed the St. Anthony complaint (Lawsuit) against the City of Fayetteville at 4:20pm on 9-18-17. While it is an action we feel we must take, we are disappointed that the City was not willing to work toward any acceptable solution to the water issue short of this action. We will provide reports as the suit progresses.

Building & Grounds – Tony Gill

Family Life – Carmel Morris

1. We had a good turn out for the Parish Picnic. I want to thank the Knights of Columbus for cooking the hamburgers and hotdogs, and our DJ/MC Tommy Wilson for the great music. A popcorn machine has been donated for "Harvest Happening" and to use for any other event. A big thank you to Patty Wright and the CYO Youth Group for helping to set up for the picnic and games.
2. Congratulations to Richard and Linda Paladino who won the Mr. & Mrs. Competition.
3. Mark your calendars for the Trick or Treat Potluck Luncheon on Sunday, October 29 at 11am after CCD. Children/adults don't forget to bring your costumes.

Hospitality & Outreach – Phyllis Johnson

Communications – Pat Bronner
All advertising for "Harvest Happenings" has been mailed or e-mailed out including radio stations, FPU, churches, newspapers etc. Flyers and handouts have been made and circulated, and hopefully by others beside myself. Silent Auction items are also needed along with the other events during "Harvest Happening".
Lack of support, helpers, donations, etc. before and during this fundraiser has become a real problem in the last couple of years as well as little attendance from our own parishioners. I pray this will not be the case this year.

New Business
Noted by Fr. George: On Sunday, October 22, mass will start at 8:20am and announcements will be made by 8:15am due to the teacher's training session.

Next meeting: October 16, 2017

Adjourned: 6:50pm
