Fr. George Report: John 6:22-29

1. After having a break for many years, we got the opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation in our parish on 4-21-2018, on that memorable day our new Bishop of the Diocese of Nashville, Bishop Mark Spalding confirmed 12 Candidates including two from Immaculate Conception Church, Pulaski. There was much planning and preparation for the grand function. Everything went very well, and the celebration had a wonderful turn out. The Bishop was highly pleased with all the arrangements and appreciated everybody's performance. I use this opportunity to thank all you sincerely. My special thanks go to the DRE, Confirmation teachers, the Spirituality Committee, the Choir, the Decoration Committee, the Hospitality Committee, the Family Life Committee, the ushers, the Acolytes and all volunteers who invested their time, talents and treasure for the celebration.

2. On Sunday, 05-21-18, Mothers' Day and the Recognition of the 2018 Graduates was celebrated at the 8:30 a.m. Mass. The procession of the graduates in their respective school and college uniforms displaying their accomplishments on a board was spectacular. I sincerely thank the Knights of Columbus for giving a sumptuous breakfast to the Mothers and the Family Life Committee honoring the Graduates on the day.

3. On Saturday, 05-19-2018, in the morning at 10:00 a.m. a funeral graveside service was conducted at the Cedar Hill Cemetery in honor of Janet Smith, a long-time parishioner of St. Anthony. Our prayers and thoughts are with the bereaved members of Janet's family, I thank those members of our parish who came and participated in the service.

4. On Saturday, 05-19-2018, at the Pentecost Vigil Mass, five children of a Hispanic family were baptized, and a reception was given to them in the Social Hall after the Mass.
